Wells called in a lady neighbor, the mother of a called in a lady neighbor, the mother of a family, and requested her to act as midwife. The lady refused, and advised him to call a physician. Wells replied in a contemptuous manner that he had no faith in physicians, and undertook to perform the duties of midwife himself. Shortly after the birth the child was reported dead. Wells then wrapped a few rags around it, dug a hole in his back-yard, and buried it. Last night the news of the fiendish work reached the ears of the officers and to day reached the ears of the officers, and to-day Wells was notified to remove the remains

Mexican Troops Have a Rattling Fight

With Indians. NOGALES, February 23d .- A fight occurred few days ago at the little valley of Batachi in the wild Bacatete Mountains. Cap-tain Encisco, at the head of a number of troops, and a large party of citizens from ranches, attacked some Indians who were fortified in a strong position. The Yaquis defended themselves bravely. The combat waged from 2 o'clock in the afternoon till nightfall, when the battle was suspended owing to darkness.

The following morning, with the intent continuing the battle, the troops moved ing the night with their wounded. In the pits were found the bodies of ten Indians. Captain Encisco sustained a loss of one killed and two wounded. EVERYTHING IN THE MUSIC LINE. edged successor to Cajeme.

The Yaquis' situation in Sonora resemles in many particulars that of the Apaches, Utes, Sioux and other tribes of the United States. The Yaquis were possessed of a large reservation along the Yaqui river, embracing hundreds of thou sands of acres of rich and fertile lands that had never been disturbed by the victorious Spaniard nor his successor, the modern Mexican. The Yaquis had been in fact always sufficiently warlike to keep up some kind of independence under their own Chiefs, who guarded with a jealous eve their country from the invasion of Mexican squatters. The real cause of the Yaqui war was the irning desire of a number of wealthy and influential Mexicans to possess them selves of the rich, wealth-producing acres For this reason the aid of the Federal Government was invoked, while open war was made upon Cajeme, the patriotic Chief. The great mass of the tribe were cajoled by specious promises of dividing and partitioning the lands of the great reservation in severalty. After Cajeme was made way with, these promises were not kept. The whole district is watered by the Yaqui river, from the crest of the Sierra Madre to the breakers of the Pacific Ocean, will shortly be parcelled out in immense grants 1016, 1018, 1020 FIFTH STREET, SACRA mento, NEUBOURG & LAGES, Proprietors. the meeting of the Convention. THE CALL FOR THE CONVENTION. Washington, February 23d .- Following is the call for the Convention

The National Democratic Committee, having met in the city of Washington on the 22d day of February, 1888, has appointed Tuesday, the 5th day of June next, at noon, as the time, and has chosen the city of St. Louis as the place, for holding the National Democratic Convention. Each State is entitled to representation therein equal to double the number of its Senators and Representatives in Congress, and each Territory and the District of Columbia shall have two delegates. All Democratic conservative citizens of the United States, irrespective of past political associations and differences—who can unite with us in an effort for a pure, economical nite with us in an effort for a pure, ed and constitutional Government-are cordisinvited to join us in sending delegates to QUARRELING ALL ROUND. Another Story of the Irish-Tarpey Falliog Out.

Copyright, 1888, by the California Associated Press WASHINGTON, February 23d .- In the disatches to the California Associated Press this afternoon some idea was given of the which was sent here to secure the Conven tion for San Francisco. Colonel Irish does not think he was treated with decency by Mr. Tarpey, and he attributes the failure of San Francisco to obtain the Convention to Tarpey's lack of judgment.

Tarpey, on the other hand, says that he was working single-handed for victory, and that he was willing to sacrifice anything to obtain success. In a conversation with your correspondent to-night Tarpey said It was agreed in the conference that General Rosecrans, Mr. Irish, Mr. King and myself should address the committee in behalf of San Francisco. Each city was given twenty minutes in which to present its claim, and it was immaterial to me whether there were twenty men to speak one minute each, or one man to speak twenty minutes. I asked Mr. Tingle, Congressman Thompson and General Ham-mond to address the committee, and all of them refused. Then, after having invited Irish, Rosecrans and King to address the committee, and while they were in readiness to do so Gorman told me to limit the speakers to King and myself. I told Rosecrans and Irish what I had been directed to do. General Rosecrans appar ently had no feeling in the matter, but Irish evidently had. He said nothing, inferred that he felt aggreeved. Had I undertaken to have told Gorman that I had made certain arrangements for speeches. opposition to his views, he might ver properly have told me that as San Fran cisco was managing its own fight it require no further advice or assistance from him and we would have lost all his support. I PORTLAND, February 23d .- To-day the did not think it wise to imperil our Republican State Committee convened chances in this manner. Last night Gen-possible, and we were whipped. That is all there is of it." TARPEY AND TINGLE DO NOT SPEAK NOW Mr. Tarpey will leave for San Francisco, a New York, next week. Associated with m and other gentlemen desirous of securing the Convention to San Francisco has been special agent G. R. Tingle, of the Treasury Department, who has been assigned to duty at the fur seal islands of Alaska. Both Tarpey and Tingle have been in daily communication with the California State Democratic Club. Tingle has conducted the correspondence with this club, and last night, feeling that the situation justified a hopeful message to that institution, he indited a telegram and asked Tarpey to join him in signing it.

"Send your message," replied Tarpey and I will send one also." 'We have always sent joint messages,' replied Tingle. "Sign this with me."
"Go ahead, Tingle," said Tarpey, "I will send one of my own."

Tingle tore the telegram he had written into tatters, walked out of the hotel, and has not spoken to Tarpey since.

HAMMOND TACKLES THE "EXAMINER" MAN. One of the most offensive features of the fight for the Convention developed itself at a late hour to-night. Surveyor-General had knifed San Francisco and had secretly done all in his power to prevent that city from securing the Convention. As soon as Hammond learned that such a report was in circulation he visited the office of its author and demanded to know by what authority WAR UPON INFAMIES.

A bill is now before Congress to prohibit the publication of lottery advertisements publications whatever containing lottery law, and the postal officials enforce it, our comtemporaries, the San Francisco Call. Chronicle, Examiner, Alta and Post, will be objects for pity, since they will be compelled either to abandon the illicit revenues they now receive from the lottery managers for advertising, or establish independent mail-carriage for their outlying circulation. The law of the State of California forbidding such advertising they unanimously agree to ignore and defy, but when it comes to a wrestle with Uncle Sam we doubt the ability of these western metropolitan contemporaries to cope with the authorities.

CLUB ORGANIZATION AGAIN. The New York Tribune says: "As a result of the wise, hopeful work done by the Convention of Republican clubs, the party will go into the coming national campaign materially strengthened in every State in the Union. The judgment which summoned the Convention has been fully approved. It was a sagacious political movement. All that its projectors could have hoped for has been brilliantly accomplished, and the framework of a splendid political machine, extending all over the carnate. As a matter of fact the worst will not apply to California, unless very nation, has been built up in a day." This speedy action is taken. We have not heard of a club in this State forming and affiliating with the national club league. The other part, in pursuance of the treaty of Tientsin, admits the free immigration of merchants, teachers, students and travelers. But these latter must present certificates of their character issued by the Chinese Government. Their Government has not, as a matter of fact, issued any such certificates to date. But in the earlier days of restriction a number of peanut venders, professing to be "merchant princes," and slave boys pretending to be students, were admitted by the Courts on certificates that subsequently proved to have been worthless. These would figure as true immigrants, and it is of these that the sagacious New York Herald clearly has got hold. We have a suspicion that the eight Chinese immigrants with which the year 1886 is alone credited were the Chinese Embassador and suite.

Dyspepsia

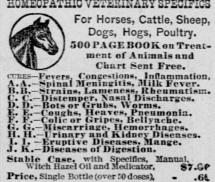

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depres sion, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following: "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gon feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amoun of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.
